

Seeking a PE HVAC Plumbing Designer for our Client in Ft. Collins CO! We're looking for the right individual to join the Northern Colorado/Southern Wyoming team...and it could be you! The ideal candidates will have a strong knowledge of design and construction as they apply to the mechanical and plumbing engineering disciplines within the building industry. We desire professionals with experience and interest in innovation, sustainable design and possible future ownership. THERE IS NO FEE TO YOU! FEE IS PAID BY OUR CLIENT!!

Send your resume as soon as possible to sherry@egs-partners.com, lynn@egs-partners.com or tom@egs-partners.com or contact Sherry Wickersham, Lynn Keel or Tom Duncan at 303-477-6800! Hurry as you won't want to miss out on this great opportunity.

Ideal Candidates will possess the following applicable qualities:

- Demonstrated capability in designing HVAC and/or Plumbing Systems
 - Demonstrated ability to attract and maintain client relationships
 - Demonstrated track record in new business development
 - Experience with Higher Education, K-12, Transportation and Healthcare preferred
 - Active involvement in Professional Organizations such as ASHRAE, ASPE, USGBC
 - Expertise in writing specifications and working knowledge of Master Spec
 - Familiarity with ASHRAE, ASPE and all relevant International Building Codes
 - Familiarity and experience with Green Building Standards
 - Proficiency with Revit and integrated BIM
 - Experience in load calculations and energy modeling
 - CSI-CCS certification (preferred)
 - Degree in Mechanical Engineering
 - Licensed PE with 10-15 years-experience
 - LEED Accreditation (preferred)
 - Strong Teamwork, Communication and Organizational Skills
 - The ability to produce work and manage employees
 - The ability to multi-task
 - A desire or interest in ownership
-
- Software Experience
 - Autodesk Building Design Suite – 2016
 - Trane Trace 700
 - Autodesk Navisworks
 - Microsoft Word, Excel and Outlook